Doing Good Work

Mr. H. B. Joyner, of the Fort, Does Good Work in the Old Country.

The Qu'Appelle Valley Flour Mills Running Night and Day.

Mr. H. B. Joyner, recently returned from England, informs us that while there he was besieged with enquiries about the Northwest by parties who desired to secure homes of their own and become lauded proprietors. Mr. Joyner cheerfully answered all questions and devoted much of his time towards advertising our country, and it will certainly be no fault of his if we do not see an improvement in immigration shortly. It is chiefly due to this gentleman that the Northwest was so well represented by our police at the Jubilee.
Mr. Joyner has secured the attention and use of columns of several leading English papers, and letters appearing in them from time to time from farmers who have settled here are having good effect.

Mr. Joyner is a believer in the great future of the Northwest, and has demonstrated his belief in establishing, in partnership with Mr.
S. C. Elkington (in 1884), the celebrated Qu'Appelle Valley Flour Mills, and their gristing trade is now the largest in the Territories.
These mills are situated at Fort Qu'Appelle, in the heart of a most fertile region, and while other mills in the Territories, more pretentious, perhaps, have ceased to grind, owing to lack of water and patronage, these mills are grinding ever. For only two weeks this year have they shut down for the purpose of cleaning and putting in improved machinery. They are running now night and day and are under the management of one of the most prominent millers from Ontario.
The mills have a capacity of 100 barrels per day, and are turning out flour that cannot be surpassed.

It is a singular fact, but nevertheless true, that prophets have little honor in their own country; and why consumers do not patronize home industries is a puzzle; but we suppose it is owing to the carelessness of human nature—and an eye perhaps to the main chance.
However, these people are only injuring themselves, and those who endeavor to build up home industries by liberal patronage are the ones who will benefit most.
The money spent at home circulates at home; the country is built up and greater local demand created.
The future of the Northwest lays in the hands of the settlers. If they desire to encourage capital, to be invested here in establishing local industries, they should give these industries the preference, and we hope to see these energetic gentlemen, who are doing so much for the benefit of this district, rewarded for their good work, both in supplying the needs of settlers and building up our country.

Messrs. Creamer & Gray have been appointed agents here for the sale of the products of these mills, and certainly there is not a more pushing firm in town. Their sales last week were very large, and Mr.
Guy May, the freighter, is kept busy hauling supplies to the place of business, all of which goes to show the excellent reputation the Qu'Appelle Valley mills enjoy.

GOOD-BYE, "KIRK!"

W. Kirkland Dined by the Members of the Polo Club.

On Saturday evening the members of the Polo club, together with friends from Indian Head and Fort Qu'Appelle, met at the Queen's hotel to tender their respects to Mr. Kirkland, and say good-bye, previous to his departure for England. The company numbered some twenty or more, and a jolly lot they were. Misses Hilliard and his good wife had provided a feast fit for the gods, to which the company did ample justice. After toasting their guest, host, hostess and each other, they adjourned to the spacious music room of the hotel, where a few pleasant hours were spent in music and song. Mr. Kirkland, by request, sang in a clear, powerful voice "The Anchor's Weighed," which was loudly applauded; other vocalists acquitted themselves equally well. On the company breaking up, Mr.
Kirkland gave the receipt of the best wishes of all for a safe and pleasant trip across the sea, who expressed a hope that he would at some future time visit this part of the earth again. Mr. Kirkland thanked all for their kindness and regretted very much having to sever from his friends in the Northwest, with whom he has spent several pleasant years.

Did for Him and His Wife—Truly a Friend to the Profession.

"I can but proclaim Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder a wonderful medicine, particularly for singers and public speakers, or those who have a tendency to sore throat, hoarseness, tonsillitis and catarrh. Myself and wife both sufferers of catarrh and tonsillitis. We had tried almost everything, but have never found anything to equal this great remedy. For quite a long time it only is a wonder worker. I could not believe it by use and I am constantly recommending it to my brother professionals."

A MODEL SUBSCRIBER.

Good morning, sir; Mr. Editor, and how are you taking it?
I owe for your next year's paper; I thought I'd come and pay it.
And Jones is a good fellow to take it; and this is his in my hand; I shut down leading it to him, and then coaxed him to try it a year.

And here's a few items that happened this week in our "daily."
I thought they'd look good in the paper, so I just narrated the tale; And here's a basket of potatoes my wife sent expressly for you, And a bunch of flowers from Jessie, she thought she must do something, too.

You're doing the country good, as all the family agree;
Just keep your goose-quill foppin' and give
'em a good one for me.
And now you are chuck full of business,
And I won't be takin' your time; I've things of my own I must tend to—Good-by, sir, I believe I will climb.

The editor sat in his sanctum, and brought down his fist with a thump, "God bless that old farmer," he muttered, "he's a regular jolly old tramp." And 'twas thus with our noble profession, and that this will ever be still;
There are some who appreciate its labor, and some who never will.

The thrashing records in every direction, prove most abundantly that the anticipations of our farmers were not unduly stated, and the large yields of extra No. 1 hard, combined with extra No. 1 prices, is making business extra good. Long may this state of affairs continue.

The school here was closed only one week on account of some scarletina cases. There

Piegan Indians, of Calgary, Likely to Cause Trouble in the Near Future.

Because White Physicians Fail to Save Sick Children—The Report Denied.

A report reached here on Tuesday afternoon, upon what seems good authority, that the Piegan Indians at Calgary are likely to cause trouble, owing to a number of their children dying at the Industrial School at Edmonton, Man., where they were sent to be educated. It seems that the medicine men are not allowed to treat the children when ill at the school, the white physicians only attending them, and this has caused the trouble. An Indian runner passed through here on the afternoon of Tuesday, and was spoken to by the party giving the information. He said he was visiting one of the Indians, and that an uprising was likely to occur, first at Kikihorn, and then be general throughout the Territories.

The Winnipeg Free Press, when informed of this rumor, telegraphed to different points for information, with the following result:

Kikihorn, Man., Nov. 9.—No Indians around here except those in the Industrial school, and the same is no disturbance there; The Benali reservation is thirty miles north, no report of trouble there.

Regina, Nov. 9.—There are no Piegan Indians in Qu'Appelle district. They are in the McLeod district. Nothing has been heard here of any probable uprising, and so far as Assiniboia is concerned, nothing is more unlikely, as the Indians are peaceable and contented, not even asking for rations.
A similar state of affairs is believed here to characterize the reserves in the Territories as a whole.

LATER.

On making inquiries as to the identity of the runner, we learn that he is an Indian doctor from Kikihorn, and the idea of an uprising may have only originated with him.—Ed.

(From our own correspondent.)

The felt shoe business at the Industrial School has assumed such proportions that the Rev. Father Ringham intends to make certain improvements. Orders are coming in so rapidly for felt and felt shoes of all descriptions that the present staff of employees will have to be increased. An eight horse power engine will supply the power for running the requisite machinery, some more of which, we understand, will be put in shortly.

Mr. Box, the manager of the felt business, is moving his family into the head-some residence just finished.

We are pleased to note that Mrs. Meehan and Miss Boudard, who have been seriously ill, are convalescing.

Owing to business which requires his presence in Ontario, the teacher, J. A.
Joyce, has resigned his position.

There are men who imagine that overwork is a necessary evil for all life. They work like slaves at their business, take insufficient time to rest and sleep, and abuse and neglect their health in every way. Then, when they break down, they keep on just as before, except that in addition to their usual work, they go out every day and spend a little in their garden, or try to imitate Mr. Gladstone by cutting down a tree or chopping the firewood.

A more ridiculous method of curing a man who is suffering from nervous exhaustion and is threatened with nervous prostration could not be well conceived. A man who has overworked does not need more work, but less work and more rest. The man who has lost his appetite needs something to restore it. The man whose nerves are shattered needs something to tone and strengthen them. Get the nerve right and sound, and refreshing sleep will follow. A man who sleeps well and eats well, and digests and assimilates his food will out-remain ill.

In cases of this kind Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery goes to bed rock—to first causes. It creates a hearty appetite; it makes the digestion and assimilation perfect; it invigorates the liver; it purifies the blood and fills it with the life-giving elements of the food. It builds up new flesh, new muscle and new nerve tissue. It is an unfailing cure for nervous exhaustion and nervous prostration, and the best of all medicines for overworked men and women. An honest druggist won't urge an inferior substitute upon you, thereby insulting your intelligence.

It is a dealer's business to tell you what you ask for—not what he prefers for his profit's sake to sell.

A man or woman who neglects constitution suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All medicine dealers sell them.

Deaf Mute Children in the Ter- ritories.

The time surely has arrived when proper educational facilities should be provided for those deaf children who reside in British Columbia and the Northwest Territories. For many years the parents and friends of these deaf mutes have been urging on the government the necessity of a movement in this direction, which is demanded both by justice and expediency, and the Canadian Mute has aided their endeavors to the best of its ability. Up to the present, however, these efforts have been unavailing, so far as practical results are concerned, though they have not been wasted, since a public sentiment has been created which the authorities will not be much longer able to withstand. The Manitoba government was willing to enlarge its institution at Winnipeg, and admit the deaf children from the Northwest at a fair pro rata charge, but the Dominion government has never agreed to the proposal—or rather they have agreed to it in theory but have never carried it out in practice. It would perhaps now be better, and more economical in the end, to abandon that project and erect a school for the deaf at Regina or some other suitable and central locality. This would seem advisable especially in view of the rapid increase in population in Manitoba and the Northwest, in consequence of which the time is not far distant when one school would not be sufficient for all the deaf throughout those immense districts. The work of teaching the deaf is one that requires special training on the part of teachers, and should a school not be established in the Territories till the population approximates that of Ontario, it would be quite impossible to obtain in Canada a staff of qualified teachers. If, however, a small school be now established, the two or three teachers that would be required could easily be obtained, and then, by the addition of a new teacher at intervals as might be required, a competent staff would be gradually secured sufficient to meet the requirements when the number of deaf pupils becomes much greater than it is now. It would seem, also, that the time has arrived when the duty of providing a school for the deaf devolves upon the Council of the Territories, rather than upon the Dominion Government. To that council has recently been granted enlarged powers and a considerably greater subsidy, and it now enjoys nearly all the functions of a Provincial Legislature, and should also accept the corresponding responsibilities. This would appear to be all the more incumbent on the Council in view of the fact that it already has control of the schools and educational system of the Territories, and we see no reason why it should not round out that system by providing a school for the deaf.

The people in the Northwest pride themselves on the fact that their per capita expenditure for educational purposes is much greater than in any of the provinces, and that the attendance is 95 per cent. of the school population, which percentage also exceeds that in other parts of Canada. All this certainly redounds very much to their credit, but so long as the deaf are denied equal privileges with the hearing, and are shut out in the outer darkness of ignorance, this proud boast is a vain one. The supreme test of civilization is the extent to which the afflicted classes are cared for and we hope the people in the Northwest will see to it that this reproach against them, that of neglecting the deaf, shall no longer exist. It is not charity the deaf ask for, but simply justice, simply an equal advantage in the battle of life with the hearing, simply that they also may have, by the aid of their fellow citizens, the same privileges which their parents now help to provide for hearing children.
Public opinion is already strong in favor of establishing such a school and we hope it will speedily compel action.

HAPPY PEOPLE

Who Are Made Well and Strong

NO RETURN OF DISEASE

Cures are Permanent and Lasting

A Letter from a Montreal Gentleman Cured Four Years Ago

Medical colleges conferred upon Professor Edward Phelps, M.D., their highest honors for his invaluable investigations in medicine, but all this seems small in comparison with the grand chorus of gratitude that has gone up all over the world from men, women and children who have outgrown weakness, lack of health and disease by the use of Paine's Celery Compound, the noble professor's grandest medical discovery.

Paine's Celery Compound justly boasts of one grand advantage over all the advertised remedies of the day, whether they be pills, nervines, bitters or sarsaparillas. The cures effected by Paine's Celery Compound in cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, kidney and liver troubles, nervousness and dyspepsia are permanent and lasting.

Thousands of glad letters like the following from Mr. Charles Bowles, of Montreal, are received every year:

"Over four years ago I gave you a testimonial for Paine's Celery Compound after it had completely freed me of rheumatism of many years' standing. I am happy to state I have had no trouble from the disease since your Paine's Celery Compound cured me, proving conclusively that your medicine works permanent cures. I am always recommending Paine's Celery Compound to the sick, and particularly to those troubled with rheumatism."

VAIN REGRETS.

By the late W. Sampson.

I have perfected friendship and kindness, I have changed all my pleasures to pains In one moment of folly and blindness, And vain regret only remains, By the word that should not have been spoken,
By the deed that should not have been done, Scattered links of a chain that is broken—
The glory gone out of the sun.

Long night with no promise of morning, Deep sorrow that will not depart; Sweet song that is changed into mourning, Crucifixion that burns in the heart;
The hush of an ice-cold river,
The gloom of a desolate shore;
The light that seems vanished forever—Closed gates that will open no more.

Long, long must I wait for the morning; Long, long must I wait for the day—For the roses that bloom on the spray;
For the light of the curtain of fate—
For one word of a pardon divine;
For one moment of joy and of gladness—If such blessings can ever be mine?

BABY'S SKIN

Freed from all Eruptions.
Made Pure and White by DR. CHASE'S OINTMENT.

Mothers take a pride in having their infants' skin of that delicate pink and white—soft as velvet. When torturing and disfiguring eruptions seize upon the little body, they want a remedy that will not disappoint nor fail. True and again Dr.
Chase's Ointment has proven itself a specific for all skin diseases to which babies are peculiarly subject.

MRS. CHAS. K. MOSS, of Berlin, Ont., had a little baby 6 months old, with itching sores on her body. Dr. Chase's Ointment cured her when everything else failed.

Another mother who holds Dr. Chase's Ointment in high esteem is MRS. JAS.
BROWN, of Moresworth, Ont. Her baby boy was covered all over the face, sides and hips with Bozema. The first application of the Ointment stopped the itching, and 3 boxes effected a complete cure.

These are but samples of the hundreds of mothers who are delighted with Dr.
Chase's Ointment.

Local and General

—Rev. S. W. Thomson is attending the Presbyterian synod now in session at Winnipeg.

—The municipal clerk's office will in future be in J. Doolittle's new furniture store, Qu'Appelle Street.

—Parties wishing to winter cattle apply to R. Johnston at once, as he has 500 head to put out to winter.

—The new furniture warehouse on Qu'Appelle street is receiving its finishing touches at the hands of the painter.

—Inventors who wish to secure a patent may hear of something to their advantage by calling or communicating with the Progress.

—Persons wishing to dispose of second hand articles should advertise in the Progress. It costs only a quarter, and creates a demand.

—Brine & Fetherstonhaugh, liverymen, of Qu'Appelle and Fort Qu'Appelle, have dissolved partnership, Mr. Fetherstonhaugh continuing the business.

—Dr. J. P. Creamer has returned from a visit to Winnipeg. While in the city he attended the Moody meetings and was very much impressed by them.

—Rev. G. Lyon, once of this diocese, arrived this morning and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Boyce of Belatee bungalow. Mr. Lyon is on his way to New Zealand.

—One of our blacksmiths is a great wing shot. Yesterday afternoon in a few hours he shot eight chickens on the wing. A mean insinuation has been made that these chickens were of the farmyard variety.

—The clerk of the municipality has been appointed caretaker of the cemetery with full authority to sell plots and collect arrears therefor. Parties wishing to have exclusive use of their plots please pay up forthwith.

—The Xmas number of The Progress promises to be handsomer than ever. Subscribers whose time expires next month are requested to renew at once and so be able to secure a copy, as only a limited number will be issued.

—We draw attention to the advertisement in another column of W. J. Craig, who is sole agent in the Northwest for the celebrated Terriff Perfect Washing Machine. "Get one and try it; if not satisfactory, don't buy it," is the fair offer of Mr. Craig.

—The Americans aim to excel at everything they undertake so as to say each and every important thing they have is the greatest on earth. They admit, however, that Canada has the best weekly newspaper on the continent in the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. Americans have tried over and over again to produce such a paper for a dollar, but have failed. The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal has the proud distinction of being quoted by editors, and the best editors, all over the continent. There is no doubt about the supremacy of the Family Herald and Weekly Star. Its rise and progress is a matter for honest pride.

Dr. Chase's Cures Catarrh After Operations Fail.

Toronto, March 16th, 1897.
My boy, aged fourteen, has been a sufferer from Catarrh, and lately we submitted him to an operation at the general hospital. Since then we have resorted to Dr. Chase's Catarrh Cure, and one box of this medicine has made a prompt and complete cure.

—Dr. C. E. Carthew sailed from England to New York on the 23rd ult., and expects to reach home for Xmas dinner. The doctor while away visited the principal hospitals in America and Great Britain. He was particularly delighted with his visit to Edinburgh, the old home of Mrs. Carthew.

A Mother's Story—Her Little Girl Cured of Croup.

Having tried your medicine, my faith is very high in its power of curing Cough and Croup. My little girl has been subject to the croup for a long time, and I found nothing to cure it until I gave Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine, which I cannot speak too highly of. Mrs. F. W. BOND, 20 Macdonald St., Barrie.

—J. Longpre, who for thirteen years has so ably filled the position of assistant in the general store of J. P. Beauchamp at this place, has severed business connections here and will open for himself at Lebret on the 15th inst. Joe's many friends here wish him good luck and feel confident of his success in the field he has chosen.

—There was a meeting of the directors of the Northwest Territories Dairyman's association, in Regina, on 10th inst. Steps were taken to make the association more useful and to bring it in closer touch with the local organizations. It is rumored that there will be a series of meetings held similar to those of two winters ago.

—S. Gibson's farmers' stable, corner of Pacific avenue and Walsh street, is nearing completion. It is quite an addition to that end of town and will, no doubt, prove a great convenience. Someone suggests that before all the stalls are put in a dance should be held. The bachelors or curlers should take the hint, or the farmers themselves.

A Boasted Advantage Proves to be a Source of Weakness and Worthlessness.

Makers of crude and imitation dyes must of necessity claim some advantage for their productions in order to attract consumers. Amongst the deceptive and sweeping claims put before the public by a certain maker of dye, one in particular must attract the attention of even those who are novice in the art of home dyeing; we refer to the statement, "Will not soil the hands."

This claim is a direct acknowledgement of weakness and worthlessness as far as coloring power is concerned. Any wise woman will readily see that a dye that will not stain the hands is of little use in the work of dyeing. Such dyes may give a light and flimsy fabric a show of tint or color, but it soon vanishes from the materials when they see the light of heaven.

The Diamond Dyes, no matter how much water is added, have coloring power to stain the hands. A bath prepared from one ten cent package for dyeing six pounds of goods a light color will give as durable a shade as if the bath had been prepared for dyeing two pounds of goods a dark color.

It is coloring power that home dyers look for and must have, colors that will stand sunlight and washing with soap. As two sticks can be used for moving the goods about in the bath, there is no necessity to have the hands or arms in the dye. Diamond Dyes are true and powerful agents, always doing the best work, and never make false and misleading claims.
